Lac la Biche Man Gets Break in Supreme Court

Charles Steeples of Lac la Biche received leniency in supreme court last week when he appeared for trial on two charges of false pretences.

Meanwhile, one other Lac la Biche resident, Yvonne Langevin, was remanded until Oct. 30 on one charge of arson, and 367 charges of fraud, said to have involved about $33,000.

Steeples, who told a long story of hard luck and sickness, had already spent four months in jail waiting trial, and Mr. Justice Egbert, at the suggestion of defence counsel Harold Hawe, agreed to sentence Steeples to time already spent in custody.

Mr. Hawe, in outlining circumstances preceding the commission of the offences, said that the accused had become ill and required lengthy hospital attention.

He slipped behind financially and finally used some of his insurance collections to support his family and cover other expenses. A short time after his release from hospital, he became ill again, required an operation and gradually went further into debt.

The insurance companies approached him. Later he told his wife the whole story and they agreed the only thing to do was to take the matter to police. That was done.

The accused's children were placed in a mission so the mother could go to work in an effort to help straighten the situation out.

Mr. Hawe told the court that it was expected a third bad cheque charge would be brought against Steeples and requested that he not be placed on suspended sentence as, the third charge might upset the suspended sentence.

Many independent grocers locate their shops close to a big chain store competitor. Business statistics show they gain from the many shoppers attracted to such a district by a chain store.

Boyle Teacher Visits Relatives At Spruce Valley

SPRUCE VALLEY—Miss Merna Pundlyk ,the Grades 3 and 4 teacher of Boyle, Alta., spent a week end with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Zilinski, from September 22 to 25.

On Wednesday, September 27, Mr. Bill Duban and daughter Miss Marie Duban were to Edmonton in his car.

On Thursday, September 28, a show was held in the Spruce Valley Hall called "Girl from Alaska." A very small crowd was present on account of the rain and snow ,and muddy roads. There was supposed to be a show on Wednesday, September 27 ,too, but nobody arrived—neither did the showman.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Pelipuk of Pason, Alta., was a visitor at her mother's place, Mrs. Jean Zachkewich.

Last Rites For Geo. Anderson At Briereville

BRIEREVILLE — Mr. George Anderson of Lac La Biche, passed away at his home on Friday, morning, September 22, 1950, at the age of 62 years, 11 months.

He is survived by his loving wife, and two sons, Gordon and James of Briereville and four daughers, Carrie of Edmonton, Mrs. Lloyd Hendrickson of Camrose, Leila and Mrs. Victor Manca of Lac La Biche; also one brother, Mr. John Anderson of Briereville and three sisters, Mrs. John A. Whitford of Briereville, Mrs. Bob Whitford of Lac La Biche, and Mrs. George Whitford of Grandin; and eight loving little grandchildren.

Mr. Douglas Greenough conducted the funeral service at the home of Mr. Gordon Anderson in Briereville. Interment was made in the Grandin Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Bill Anderson and Neil Anderson, Robert Whitford and Roy Whitford, Herbert Whitford and Stanley Anderson; nephews of the deceased.

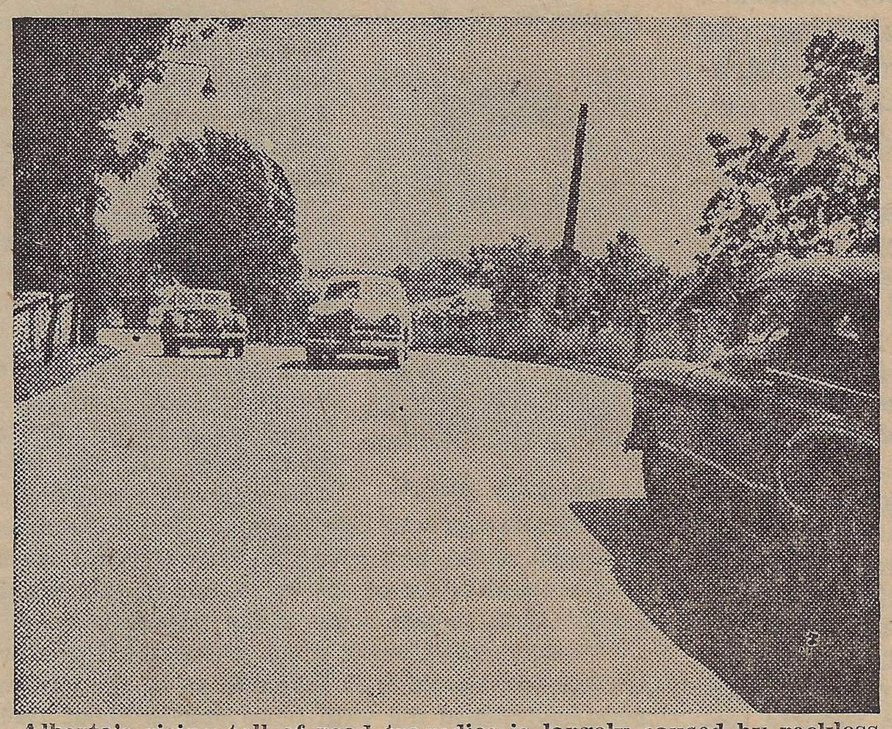

There were many beautiful floral tributes received, for which the bereaved express their thanks.

Mr. Anderson was a resident of Briereville for many years, then moved to Lac La Biche, where he made his home for the past three years.

He was born on October 13, 1887, at Red Deer, Alberta.

The residents of Briereville wish to express their deepest sympathy to the mourners in their recent bereavement.

Death at the Wheel!

Alberta's rising toll of road tragedies is largely caused by reckless or drunken driving. The character in the approaching car is breaking most of the rules in the book. He's passing on a hill, on a curve, and ignoring the solid white line. Road maniacs should remember that the life they save may be their own.

Condemned Murderer Seeks Commutation of Sentence

Joseph Gilbert, condemned to die on the gallows of Fort Saskatchewan jail Nov. 15 for the slaying of North Edmonton market gardener Sam Kee, will make one last attempt to escape his grim fate.

Alex Dubinsky, counsel for Gilbert, will appeal to Justice Minister Garson to commute Gilbert's sentence to life imprisonment.

Twice convicted of the strangulation murder of the Chinese market gardener, and twice granted appeals, 23-year-old Gilbert lost his final appeal this week after a one-day hearing.

Mr. Dubinsky based his appeal for a new trial on five points, but they were all dismissed by the appellate division of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

Counsel for Gilbert claimed the trial judge lacked jurisdiction in the second trial on grounds that a new indictment and not the first should have been used; that the coroner had not definitely established the time of Kee's death; that the trial judge's lecture was unfair in that it did not bring out points favorable to the accused; that the trial should be taken to a new division; and that the defence should have the opportunity to place Hong Suey Chin on the stand for questioning.

Chin was jointly charged with Gilbert for the murder but was acquitted on his second trial.

Should Gilbert's plea for a commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment be successful, it will be the first Edmonton case of its kind in years.

At any rate, Gilbert's fate will not be sealed until he actually steps up the gallows to go to his death, as the commutation would probably come only at the last minute.

New Addition To Atmore Hotel Nears Completion

ATTMORE—The new addition to Atmore Hotel is nearing completion. It should be open to business by November 1.

Carl Bauer is moving his stock into the new addition to his store.

Rumors have it Mr. Boudreau is selling out and will go to the U.S.A. with his uncle. Who's the next merchant? Your answer is as good as mine.

Dolores Presber is atending high school in Lac La Biche.

Atmore was covered with a white blanket on Thursday. Farmers grinned smugly — most of their much-needed crops were already in the granaries. Mrs. George Dakin said it was the first time since her arrival west some twenty-odd years ago, that they'd been threshed in September. Crops here were fair compared with the neighboring districts.

School is in session once more, with Miss Sophie Paronich as supervisor. Enrolment stands at 17 to date.

Mr. Wayne Fischer had the misfortune to crack-up his brand new 1950 Mercury this week on his way home from Boyle.

BRIEREVILLE NOTES

There were quite a few of the people from Brierville who attended the funeral of the late George Anderson. There were also many others from other districts present as well.

Rain has been falling for the past few days, which has put a curb in the threshing run.

Mrs. Henderson, Eva and Dallas returned home late Saturday night. Mrs. Simpson and son accompanied them home.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Summerhaze (nee Florence Henderson) of Canmore had the arrival of another son. Congratulations.

SNOW AIDS FIRE-FIGHTERS

McRAE—The heavy snowfall in the McRae district is a blessing to Henry Thompson and Bill Karpysyn, who have been fighting a losing battle with ground fires for the last two months on the heavy peat land soil in their meadows. No one ever knows how these fires start but these two men now realize how much work and cost it takes to keep a ground fire under control. The smoke from these ground fires and several others in the McRae vicinity have made driving on the Spedden-La Biche Highway through the district a serious hazard at night.

Nick Footz, road maintenance operator, left for home. The outfit is parked at John Karpysyn's store, waiting for the weather to clear up.

Mr. Tardiff, operator on the gravel maintenance at La Biche, moved his outfit over the M.D. roads of Smoky Lake in the worst stages of the rain storm which preceded the snow, leaving chunks of mud behind as he plowed his way down the main road to get to the gravel on the Spedden-St. Paul Highway.

Several farmers at McRae and also at Boyne Lake have fields of stooks caught in the snow storm. Several alfalfa crops may be ruined by the heavy snow, as these had too much green second growth to harvest previous to the storm.

Mrs. Raymond Littlechilds returned from the Vilna Hospital, where she was under observation by Dr. Frobb for a difficult ankle. The potato patch is not too good for a bad ankle. However, she reports her ankle in fair condition and the garden all finished. She enjoyed the two days rest.

Mr. Walter Gogwich reports a very good yield from his alfalfa seed crop. Is not finished threshing yet, the balance is all in the stook.

Grain crops in the district are grading low and will not average more than six bushels to the acre —wheat. A fifty acre crop of barley totalled a little over four hundred bushel.

E. Ladouceur Dies At Kikino

KIKINO—Erwin Robert Ladouceur passed away at the age of two years and six months at the home of Mr. A. Ladouceur on Friday, Sept. 22nd at Kikino.

He leaves to mourn his loss his loving father and mother and baby brother.

The funeral service was held in the Catholic church on Sunday the 24th and the interment took place in the Kikino cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Callion's baby is a patient in the hospital at Lac La Biche with whooping cough and pneumonia.

Mrs. Imis Gairdner is back from Edmonton, she didn't have an operation after all.

Mr. D. Pruden is driving a Chevrolet truck around now.

There was a picture show held here last night it was sure a thrilling show.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lavallee of Brosseau are here with their son for a short visit.

Lower License Fees?

The Alberta Motor Association is conducting a campaign to get 25,000 motorists to ask for reduced license fees. They cite the case of Ontario where license registration fees are $10.00 for each six-cylinder car, $2.00 in the case of a four-cylinder car.

In 1938 Mitchell F Hepburn won re-election by offering reduced license fees, and shortly after the election promptly boosted the gasoline tax by 2c per gallon! We disagree with Hepburn's political ethics, but think it would be fairer to all motorists to make the registration fee only nominal and get revenue from the gasoline tax. Then each motorist would pay in exact proportion to his use of his truck or auto.

With Alberta main gravel roads in such deplorable condition, however, wouldn't it be better to increase the gasoline tax, keep the registration fee on its present high level, and make these gravel highways fit to travel on? Where a motorist might save $20.00 a year on his license fees, it costs him probably another $20.00 per month in extra vehicle upkeep expenses because the main gravel roads have been thoroughly neglected these past few years.

Farmers on Strike

The Doane Agricultural Service is responsible for the following brief article printed in the Co-operative Digest published at Ithaca New York:

"Whoever heard of a farmer going on strike? He lives so close to nature that the waste and everything else that goes with a work stoppage seems ridiculous. Just try to visualize a farm strike that would last seven days?

"In that short time 272,724,000 gallons of milk would be wasted and 99,385,000 dozen eggs would never be gathered. If the strike came during harvest much grain would be lost, possibly as much as 80,937,000 bushels of wheat and 53,374,000 bushels of oats. That is enough wheat to make 5,341,842,000 loaves of bread — enough oats to supply all the feed and seed oats used in eleven northeastern states, including New York, for one year.

"Then think of the vegetables and fruit that would be lost. It is hard even to imagine the food that would be lost if every farmer went on strike for one week at the peak of the harvest season."

Warning to Russia

It seems to us that the most important announcement made by the foreign ministers of the United States, Great Britain and France, during their recent conference, is that which makes plain the determination that an act of aggression against the West German Federal Republic will be regarded as an attack upon the United States, Great Britain and France.

The decision to consider an attack against the West German Federal Republic an attack upon the free powers constitutes a significant warning to Soviet Russia. Under this declaration, we presume, if the Soviet-sponsored forces of East Germany commit aggression against the West Germans, the forces of the free nations will be used to stop the attack. The plain intent of the declaration is to give a warning that aggression whether from East Germans or from Russians, will be met with force.

'Liberty, Benevolence, Concord'

By RAYMOND ARYGLE

The noble slogan of one of North America's leading fraternal orders, the Independent Order of Foresters, is that of 'Liberty, Benevolence, Concord.'

A big and growing movement, with tens of thousands of members in over 1,500 cities and towns, their slogan embodies their principals, with Liberty representing the personal freedom they dearly cherish, Benevolence representing the kindness they practice, and Concord representing the harmony which prevails within their ranks.

Raymond Argyle

Several new branches of the order have been established recently in Alberta, with more on the way. Although not a member of the Foresters, I was privileged to attend the opening night of the new group in Redwater last week, as a representative of the press, and in this article I will try to impart some of my impressions.

I really didn't know much about the Foresters until a few weeks back when some of their members approached me with news stories about their new court which they plan to launch shortly on Edmonton's South Side. As the South Edmonton Sun is one of the papers put out by the company I work for, they were of course interested in reaching as great as possible a number of South Side residents.

When our group arrived in Redwater after travelling over the roughest roads this side of Hades, we gathered in an unused half of the Igloo Cafe, which will serve as the group's headquarters there.

About 150 people jammed into the small hall. Members of the new court were initiated in an impressive ceremony that lacked not at all in pageantry, with a half dozen representative members receiving initiation at the front of the hall.

In democratic procedure officers were elected to head the new court. Then a name had to be decided upon. In the words of Jack Smith, High Chief Ranger for Alberta, from Edmonton's South Side, local courts select original names, such as Edmonton's Court Gateway; the court of the Windy West in Lethbridge.

Several of the Redwaterites spoke up, offering their selections, with the assembly choosing the very appropriate term, 'Court Black Gold,' for the new group.

Following presentation of 'robes' of office to the new executive, the gathering was treated to a fine variety of entertainment which ended the session in an enjoyable manner.

Thus the Foresters, with their unique policy which offers fraternity and insurance to their members, have completed another link in their growing chain of courts. It's also another contribution to the progress and welfare of Alberta.

Scriptural Meditations

"Keep your wants, your joys, your sorrows, your cares, and your fears, before God. You cannot burden Him; you cannot weary Him. He who numbers the hairs of your head is not indifferent to the wants of His children. 'The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.'—James 5:11. His heart of love is touched by our sorrows, and even by our utterances of them.

"Take to Him everything that perplexes the mind. Nothing is too great for Him to bear, for He holds up worlds, He rules over all the affairs of the universe. Nothing that in any way concerns our peace is too small for Him to notice. There is no chapter in our experience too dark for Him to read; there is no perplexity too difficult for Him to unravel.

"No calamity can befall the least of His children, no anxiety harass the soul, no joy cheer, no sincere prayer escape the lips, of which Our Heavenly Father is unobservant, or in which He takes no immediate interest. 'He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.'—Ps. 147:3.

"The relations between God and each soul are as distinct and full as though there were not another soul upon the earth to share His watchcare, not another soul for whom He gave His Beloved Son."

Rural Electrification

Dear Sir,—I have read with some disgust an article written by T. W. Pue on Rural Electrification, found in your newspaper last week under the heading "How to Get It Sooner."

The question is; not how to get it sooner, but how to get it on terms that will do the farmer and his farm justice over the years.

Do you not think it is the height of stupidity or depth of folly for a farmer to commit himself to a 20 year agreement in times of increasing price of production—against a declining price of his produce, in a world of such instability as ours is? If history repeats itself, and it does, the government will be forced to operate the power lines of this province—or the farmer will be left in the dark.

Many people fail to realize that the farms in the outlying districts are a direct means of their prosperity. It should be remembered that agriculture has been the main factor in the development of our province—and our cities and towns have been made and molded by the farms around about them. The development of the rural area is as much a benefit to the urban dweller, as the farmer; therefore, if the power companies fail to realize the responsibility which is theirs, should not the development of agriculture be shared by rural and urban dwellers alike?

The large initial outlay of the shareholder under the plan now in operation is financially crippling to the small farm unit, while the large land owner does not pay a proportionate share in the cost of construction.

Are you satisfied, Mr. Pue, to see the urban dweller suffer because of the low standard of agricultural development? Are you satisfied to see the power companies reap profits which entail no risk or outlay to themselves, while the farmer risks everything against the elements of nature—as well as against those who would skin him for his hide in his efforts to feed a hungry world. Surely, it is no wonder in these days that communism finds fertile soil on which to thrive, while men through lust for gold have lost their reason.

ARTHUR BROWN.

Potato King

Dear Sir,—Noted in a recent issue your mention of the Morinville "Potato King." We may not be the champions, but we have him beat. Our largest was of the "Green Mountain" variety, grown of registered seed to a size of three pounds, four ounces.

A "Netted Gem" was three pounds, one and a half ounces, and several "Green Mountains," "Netted Gems" and "Early White Roses" grew to over two and a half pounds. The average size in the whole crop was two pounds, and the potatoes were dug from under nearly two feet of snow.

All three crops are of registered seed. They were grown on the farm of Robert Bauer, four miles south and one mile west of Claysmore in the Mannville district.

I wonder if we are the 1950 "Potato Kings."

Lock Up Woman Hater

Dear Sir,—I read your letter about being a woman hater. Have you any reasons for saying what you do about women?

Your mother, who brought you into this wonderful world hoped you'd be a wonderful guy, but imagine what a disappointment you are to her! If she read your letter, she must be deeply hurt by it.

If the women you've been associating with take away everything you've got, including your self respect, how about leaving the gold-digging Eves alone and associating with respectable girls?

If that doesn't help, I suggest they lock you up. The world would be better off with one less woman-hater.

"SUNSHINE."

New Discovery May Show Origin of First Albertans

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

A definite link has been found between ancient peoples in the old world and the earliest known peoples in this hemisphere, and an archeological party now exploring the northwest may uncover decisive evidence that will give, for the first time, a portrait of Alberta's first citizens.

Currently the party is working in Alaska, where they have unearthed an early settlement, and have discovered more than 2,000 objects that give an outline of the settlement's culture.

And the revolutionary thing about it is that these objects resemble very closely not only ancient tools uncovered on the Alberta plains, but weapons used in Asia as long as 10,000 years ago.

The party which made this find thinks that the articles discovered are evidence to support the long-held theory that the first settlers in the new world migrated from Asia across the Bering Straits.

But one thing definite is arising out of these searches. And that is that man has undoubtedly been operating on the American continent, and in Alberta, much longer than previously believed.

The age of man, like the age of the earth, is much older than formerly suspected.

Clashing with the theory that Alberta's first citizens were descendants of Asiatics who came across the Straits, and whose future generations evolved into Eskimos and Indians, is the belief that the Alberta Indians are an off-shoot of the Aztecs of ancient Mexico.

And their origin, in turn, creates another controversy that will probably not soon be settled.

However, the search for a common ancestor of the first peoples of America, and Alberta's first citizens, goes on.

What did Alberta look like 50,000 years ago? Were a modern Albertan transported by some time device back into the ages past, would he recognize the face of his native province?

Probably not. The Canadian Rockies were just miniatures in those ancient times, and with glaciers receding and growing over the ages, the characteristics of the land were being constantly changed.

At one time a great inland ocean crept into the Alberta plains (in fact, that's why there's oil here, for the black gold originates from tons of sediment from decomposed sea life), and at another time the Saskatchewan was a roaring, turbulent river a mile wide.

At any rate, the men of science are continuing their never-ending search for more knowledge on the origin of American life, and of Alberta's first citizens.

35 BLAZES CONTINUE

Thirty-five ground fires still are burning in northern Alberta but are under control, officials of the provincial forestry department said this week.

A forest fire at Naylor, north of Battle River, has been brought under control. This blaze had not been previously reported.

SEEKS $10 LICENSE FEE

Strong demands are being renewed by the Alberta Motor Association in seeking a reduction of the motor plate license fee to at least $10, as in Ontario.

President H. R. Chauncey, of the AMA is leading the movement to bring about lower license fees. It is apparent that the campaign will be fully maintained in the hope that it will at last be crowned with success.

Officials point out that Alberta with more than $50,000,000 of "found" money from the disposal of oil rights, is in a position to ease the motorists' tax burden after many years.

They say Alberta motor car owners have every reason to press their insistent demands for lower motor license fees. Too long has Alberta been in the unenviable position of having the highest license fees in the dominion.

While members of the provincial cabinet were reported to have given a car license cut "sympathetic consideration" this year, the AMA will not be satisfied until there is positive action to effect a substantial reduction.

Albertans In Special Force

It's all in a soldier's training for the Albertans of Canada's Special Brigade, seen here in training at Camp Petawawa, Ont. Here they practise river crossing by means of ropes as part of their early training program. Members of the Special Brigade this week received a well-deserved 96-hour leave.

Employment Outlook Good For Alberta this Winter

Alberta's employment outlook for this winter is the rosiest since 1947, said J. L. Lindal of Winnipeg, National Employment chairman for the prairies, in an interview in Edmonton last week.

He said demand for farm workers was still near the peak mark with late harvest across Canada delaying movement of 2,000 to 2,500 men from Ontario and Quebec to help with harvest in the west.

In the prairie region conditions had improved rapidly since spring, Mr. Lindal added. On Sept. 21 there were 16,000 registrations on hand in the area, a decline of 33,600 since the peak of unemployment last March.

Construction, agriculture, pulp wood cutting and the oil developments in Alberta had absorbed most of those out of work during winter, Mr. Lindal stated.

High level of employment in Alberta oil fields was the final cheerful note in his report.

OIL FLOWS THROUGH PIPELINE AS EDMONTON-REGINA LINK OPENS

Canada's first major crude oil pipeline went into operation Wednesday, less than six months after construction of the 1,127-mile Alberta-to-Great Lakes system was started last spring.

First Alberta crude oil ever moved eastward to market by pipeline started a 439-mile trip from South Edmonton to Regina shortly after 3:00 p.m. last Wednesday when Hon. E. C. Manning, premier of Alberta, turned a valve which officially opened that section of the International Pipeline Company pipe line.

Redwater - Edmonton link has already been operating for several weeks.

Attended by 200 civic, provincial and federal government officials and business executives from many parts of Canada and United States, the opening ceremony was held at the pump station of Interprovincial, on the outskirts of South Edmonton in Strathcona Municipal District.

When Premier Manning turned a mainline valve, temporary pumps at Edmonton sent Redwater crude from storage tanks into the pipeline. Speakers who participated in the brief ceremony referred to the pipeline's importance to the economy of Canada through provision of low cost transportation to market for one of the country's great natural resources. Completion of the pipeline itself in the record-breaking time of less than 150 days brought congratulations from several speakers.

More than two years of planning and designing went into the pipeline which took its place Wednesday as an important branch of the Canadian transportation business. Its function will be to carry Alberta crude to refineries across the prairies en route to Superior, Wis., on the western tip of the Great Lakes, where tankers will receive it for transshipment to refineries at Sarnia, Ont.

The temporary pumps started Wednesday will move the crude to Regina until the Edmonton pump station is completed within a few weeks. First deliveries of crude to Regina refineries are expected to reach there by the end of October and by the end of November crude will be flowing through the next 336-mile section of pipe to Grtna, Man. Deliveries to Superior are scheduled to start about the end of December.

When the system is in full operation next spring, the pipeline will move 95,000 barrels of crude out of Edmonton daily. About 70,000 barrels daily will continue eastward beyond Regina and deliveries to Superior will be about 55,000 barrels daily by next spring.

LETTER TO LOUISA

19-Year Old Considering To Divorce Sailor Husband

Dear Louisa:—I am 19 years old and married to a sailor. I am not happy the way we live.

He wants to sit around in a bar and drink all the time. I don't drink and I like to go to movies and dances but he won't go. I don't have any fun sitting watching him drink. Do you think I should get a divorce? I've been married two years and it has been that way all the time. Do you think a could find someone to share happiness with me?

E. L. H.

Answer:

I am not an advocate of divorce if there is a possible way of making a success of marriage, but I really can't see any future for you with a husband whose life is spent at a bar, drinking. You are young and I think you would be wise to tell him that he will either have to change his ways or give you up. aCn't you ways or give you up. Can't you like to do? It always pays to meet a person half way if it doesn't mean lowering your standards of right and wrong.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa—I am a widow with three children all of whom are married and have families of their own. I feel as though they don't want me, even when I visit them. They don't visit me very often, they treat me as they would a stranger. I live alone and work for my living. I get so lonesome I really don't know what to do with myself. Would you advise me if I could meet some man of my age and marry so I could have a companion?

LONESOME.

Answer:

The best thing that a middle-aged woman, whose children are all married, can do is to find outside interests. Get interested in church work or civic work. Join the Red Cross and help with community drives. This will bring you in contact with other people and keep you from thinking of your lonesome state. Try making someone else happy instead of expecting others to do nice things for you and you will be surprised how much satisfaction you get out of it.

Don't complain and make your families feel that they have been neglecting you. It doesn't help matters and even cause them to avoid you. Don't answer any "Lonely Hearts" letters either, or you may get in trouble.

LOUISA.

20th Century FARM NEWS

Farmers Will Market 360 Million Bushels of Wheat

Prairie farmers will market about 360,000,000 bushels of wheat during the present crop year which began August 1, according to a survey made by the Canadian Wheat Board.

Production of the prairie wheat crop is now set at 445,000,000 bushels in the latest estimate by the Dominion bureau of statistics.

The quality of the crop will be omewhat lower than last year and the Wheat Board estimates that only 34 per cent will grade 3 Northern or better. About 17 per cent will be 4 Northern and about 45 per cent No. 5 or lower.

To ease the problem of disposing of such a large quantity of low grade wheat there was a carryover at the beginning of the year of about 100,000,000 bushels which was predominantly 2 Northern.

The Board states that at the present time it is too early to estimate the demand for and the probable value of the lower grades of wheat.

Rockyford Youth Receives Award

Howard Roppel of the Rockyford junior wheat club has been named the winner in the Provincial junior wheat plot competition. His plot was judged the best in Alberta and was awarded a near perfect score in this competition conducted by the provincial government.

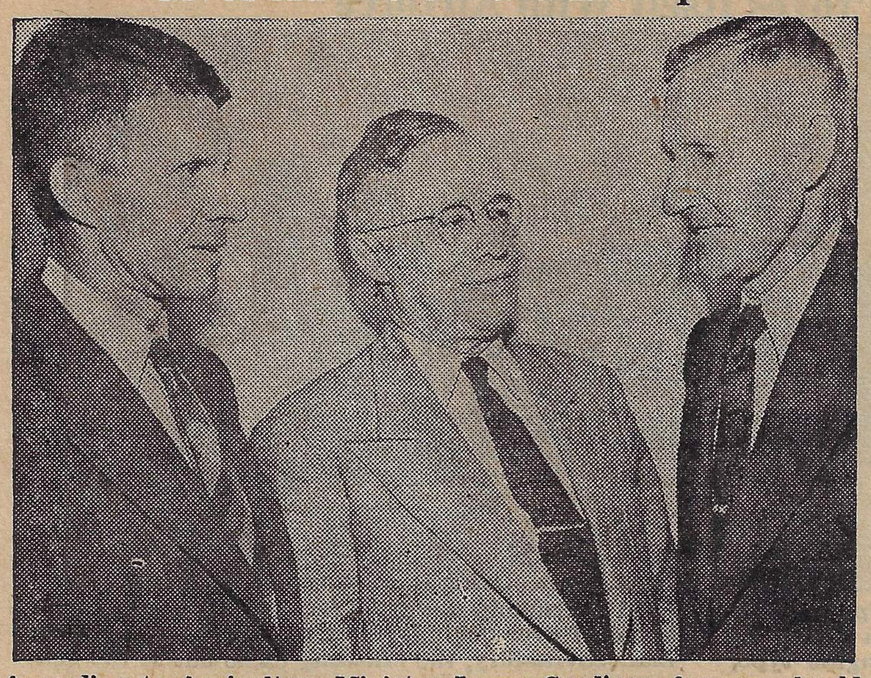

'My Friend Irma' Is Popular Program

Popular program currently being aired over Edmonton's CFRN every Wednesday at 8:30 p.m., is 'My Friend Irma,' a comedy presentation from CBS.

Irma is beautiful but dumb. Her friend, Jane, is also beautiful, but smart, and spends much of her time pulling Irma's chestnuts from the fire.

They live in Mrs. O'Reilly's unconventional boarding house, peopled with plenty of odd folks besides Irma.

Gives Advice On Grain Crop

According to Agriculture Minister James Gardiner, farmers should use their surplus grain feed (if they have any), to feed their pigs. "Turn it into pork," said the minister, seen here discussing farm problems with two Ontario farm leaders.

CARE IN SEED SELECTION IMPORTANT TO ALBERTA FARMERS

A. M. Wilson, Alberta's field crops commissioner, points out that saving seed from the best locations is good practice at any time.

In years like this when frost is known to have caused considerable damage to the germination of grains, care in seed selection is particularly important. Oats of seed quality will be short in many sections of northern and eastern Alberta this year. Farmers who harvest good fields of oats that appear suitable for seed will serve their neighbors and themselves to advantage by storing these oats in separate bins and holding them to help supply the demand for seed.

The only sure way of knowing whether or not grain will grow is to have a germination test made, says Mr. Wilson. This service is available from the Plant Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Calgary, or elevator agents may be able to supply a similar service if requested.

Oats for seed will be in short supply. If you have a good crop, keep in mind there are a number of farmers in Alberta who will be looking for seed before spring.

Mustang Proves Itself With Airforce

A good all-round fighter of the piston-engine type, the Mustang will be used as an interim measure until replaced by jet-propelled Canadian-built CF-100 Canucks and F-86 Sabres. With maximum speed of over 500 miles per hour and having good manoeuvrability, the Mustang came out of the last war with an excellent reputation.

ENTRIES POURING IN FOR EDMONTON CURLING BONSPIEL

Big time curling will officially get underway at Edmonton Monday, October 30.

That's the opening date of the second annual Associated Canadian Travellers' car bonspiel, and it is hoped that 128 rinks from all parts of western Canada as well as from the United States and eastern Canada will participate.

Keener interest than previously is being shown this year, as it is quite likely that the Edmonton car bonspiel will be but one of two to be held in Canada this winter. The other one, of course is scheduled for Nipawin, Sask., the hottest curling centre in the world.

Names synonomous with curling in Canada are common in Edmonton's entry list. Among those to enter recently are Tom Lorimer of Bentley, who is recognized as the dean of Alberta curlers. Ole Olson, a carspiel veteran of Edmonton, has entered a rink believed even stronger than last year's. J. E. Johnson of Nipawin has entered with a rink he promises will do justice to the town he represents.

An interesting family rink has been entered from Saskatoon. It's the Jack Simpson rink, 1947 grand challenge winners at the Saskatoon bonspiel. The Simpson boys are at present employed in Alberta oil fields, but will officially play as Saskatoon representatives.

Frenchy D'Amour of Trail, B.C. winner of the MacDonald Brier three years ago, and Edmonton's carspiel winner last year was among the first to enter this year.

Harry Pollon is chairman of the ACT carspiel committee and Tec Mairs is vice-chairman. Entries should be sent to 10750 109 street Edmonton.

Civil Defence Said Municipal Matter

Consensus at a recent Chicago civil defence conference was that the responsibility rests with municipal authorities, rather than the state or the federal governments according to Hon. C. E. Gerhart minister of municipal affairs, who has returned to Edmonton.

Mr. Gerhart, who is chairman of the provincial co-ordinating civic defence, attended a conference in Helena, Montana, which drew delegates from the western provinces and states, and one in Chicago.

On Thursday, Mr. Gerhart attended a convention of urban municipal delegates in Medicine Hat, where he discussed responsibilities of municipalities in civi defence.

INFLATION GROWS

MONTREAL.—"The forces of inflation are again in the ascendancy," concludes the Bank of Montreal, after analyzing the government's new interim budget in its latest Business Letter.

Whether these forces are aggravated or mitigated will depend as much on public attitude as on any steps government can reasonably be expected to take, says the Review.

Advertising Council Receives Award

BOSTON. — For distinguished service to Canadian business and to the Canadian public, the Association of Canadian Advertisers has become the second Canadian organization in 15 years to win a top award in the annual competition conducted by the American Trade Association Executives.

Judged to have achieved more than other trade association of comparable size on the continent, the ACA, which has headquarters in Toronto, was cited "especially for its steady expanded program of activities in the past ten years which resulted in its being recognized as the efficient voice of the national advertising industry in Canada." This program included the formation and administration of several subsidiary operations, including the Bureau of Broadcast Measurement, the Canadian Circulations Audit Board and the Canadian Advertising Research Foundation.

Christian Living Demands Careful Use of Bible

There can be little growth in Christian living without regular and careful use of God's word, the Bible.

Among all the books written by the hand of man, there is no book like the Bible. Its preservation down to the present time is a matter of wonder. The material in the Bible, while written over a period of more than a thousand years, from the beginning of the Hebrew nation by Moses to about the end of the first century A.D., by numbers of different authors, some known and many unknown, is still a unit. The thread of God's love for man can be traced from the beginning of creation, through the time of the Old Testament and brought to a climax in the death of His Son on the cross at Calvary, that all who live after who believe on Him might be saved eternally.

In the first six verses of Psalm 19, which we are considering in part for this lesson, David, the psalmist, wrote a beautiful tribute to God, the creator. Certainly no one was more qualified to appreciate nature than this shepherd boy, who had spent so much of his time in God's great outdoors. The psalmist loved the God of the creation so much he wanted to know him better and one way he could know God better was through the "law of Jehovah," or as we think of it, a study of the Bible.

David's description of God's law is beautiful. He uses a principle of Hebrew poetry which is called parellelism — parallel thoughts which say practically the same thing but with a slight difference of expression. Read the selected portion from Psalm 19 and find the six names which David gives to God's word and the descriptions he has for each.

In order for the Bible to help us in our Christian growth, it must not only be read often, its practical advice must be put into effect in our lives. The Bible tells us the way we ought to act but unless we act that way, it will do us no good. The psalmist tells us that God promises a reward to those who keep his laws. He does not promise us great financial or social gains. Those who know God's commandments are promised the blessing of contentment on this earth and, as Jesus declared, the opportunity to become a child of the living God, to know and to do His will, both on earth and in heaven.

Fund Campaign For Blind Underway In Rural Districts

The annual rural campaign for funds of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind opened throughout Northern and Central Alberta on Oct. 1. It will continue until the end of the month.

Officials of the CNIB point out that the campaign is being conducted only in the rural districts because, in Edmonton, the CNIB is a member of the Community chest. They want to remind Edmonton citizens, therefore, to help the blind by supporting the Community Chest Red Feather campaign which also gets underway in Edmonton at the beginning of October.

Asks $20,000

In its rural campaign the CNIB is appealing to the citizens of northern Alberta for $20,000. This amount is needed to meet the inceasing demands upon its services and facilities. It must be achieved in order to maintain the present level of essential services for the blind and to carry on the existing prevention of blindness program. Every person in Northern Alberta is urged to support this important work.

For the next month volunteer canvassers will be at work in most communities of northern and central Alberta. These men and women will be donating their time and energy in an effort to make this campaign successful.
